

Our Story

Robert J. and Joel Adams, Founders and Visionaries behind Highland Homes

Building Quality & Affordable Homes for our Neighbors since 1996

Highland Homes was founded in Lakeland, Florida, by Robert J. and Joel Adams (pictured), and was established with a foundation of quality, excellence and family values. Dedication, strong leadership and a commitment to our customers have made Highland Homes the largest privately owned home builder in Central Florida.

We know purchasing a new home is the single most important investment your family will ever make. That is why we deliver the best in new home choice, quality and value, from a team dedicated to achieving your highest level of satisfaction.

Highland Homes has built more than 6,000 homes in Florida and has the knowledge and experience to build you the quality new home you deserve, with the features you are looking for, and a payment affordable for your budget.

That's Value. That's Highland Homes.
